The mighty ocean will win the day!

*Alpine and Safari you look a little scared
The tidal wave is coming
So you better be prepared
Go take cover from the oncoming storm!
Cause when we take the field

BOOM... can you handle more?
BOOM – its gonna pour!

*One Big Ocean we stand firm
We've been waiting for our turn
Our waves are rough
Our village is tough
You will never get enough

When you see our ocean start bubblin
We may be small
But we are not cute
The ocean is rising so grab your swimsuit!*

*Ocean! Ocean! Cause a commotion
Alpine will crumble under our erosion

Brace yourself for a blue and white explosion
But wait – it's in slow motion

Triangulation Cheers

*They say we're too small to win triangulation!
Is that true?
We can be Louder!
We can be Faster!
We're gonna cause a disaster!
Uh, ungawa, gimme some of that Ocean
Power! (4x)
Strong like a tsunami
We're gonna crash the safari party
That alpine pride aint never gonna die
But this ocean power will never run dry
We're in the ocean village
And we'll play harder
We'll win triangulation
Just add water!*

*I won't grow up
I don't wanna go Safari
I don't wanna climb that mountain
Cause Ocean Life's a Party
(repeat)
Ocean...Attention (hand to head to salute)
I don't know what I've been told
The red, green, and gray are really old
I may be a little tyke
But I'll follow Jesus with all my might
Do you wanna follow red? No!
Do you wanna follow green? No!
Do you wanna follow grey? No!
Do you wanna follow blue? Yes!
What Are We? OCEAN*

*Ocean (aye aye captain!)
Welcome to the Winshape Navy
Where the waves will get real crazy
Once the ocean has set sail
You know that we cannot fail
As we ebb and as we flow
Ocean village will run this show
Crashing waves and thundering seas
Winning this game will be a breeze
We know safari will not float
SO hop on that ocean boat
That alpine village think they're fly
But they can't beat the raging tide!
If you can't swim your gonna drown cuz this year ocean won't go down ! (3x)
Splish Splash Whoosh*

*Who's that reppin the blue and white?
The mighty ocean- you know that's right?
We might be small but we sure are tough

So put your fins up, let your tentacles fly
And watch our bubbles as we swim on by!
Blub.. Blub.. blub..blub.. OCEAN*

We sail the seas both near and far!
Gotta go out and get that gold
The only good pirate is the one that's bold
The seas are ruff
The waves come fast
Safari, watch out for our cannon blast(baby powder)
The Pirates life is the life for me
So alpine you you better run and flee
Too late Too late
Too late too late
We have captured the landlubber horay (tie up safari
and alpine (someone wearing read and green)
Shiver me timbers you must say

We sail the world with great delight
Even faster with the triangle in sight!*
