

Game: Cat and Mouse

Equipment Needed:

- Cones or tape to mark the boundaries for the zone of play
- 2-3 Hula Hoops *can add more as you increase your space and number of players

Space: A large group space

Set Up:

- Mark your zone of play using the cones or tape
- Spread out the hula hoops randomly around the zone

People Needed:

- volunteers to monitor game/players
- Players who are the mice
- 1 player who starts as the cat

Objective: Be the last mouse left to win.

Game Play:

- Hula hoops are set up in the designated area randomly around the play zone.
 - One person starts as the cat and everyone else is a mouse.
 - When the game starts the cat tries to tag the mice.
 - If a mouse gets tagged, then they become a cat.
 - The hula hoops are safe zones for the mice, but they can only stay in one for 3 seconds.
 - The last mouse left wins.
