

Game: POPcorn!

Equipment Needed:

- Stage game: small parachute
- Large group: many small parachutes or large parachutes
- 4-5 McDonalds balls, gator balls, beach balls or small balls to toss/ group

Space:

- Stage game: stage space
- Larger group: whole large group space

Set Up: parachutes laid out and balls accessible

People Needed:

- Enough students to fill up each parachute
- Volunteer to call out the directions

Objective: Stage game: No objective of winning in this game. Large group style: 2 teams with 2 parachutes competing to see how many balls they can keep on their parachute.

Game Play:

- Players grab parts of the parachute and listen to the commands given by the volunteer or game leader.
- Commands given by game leader (volunteer)
  - Popcorn- keep all the balls on the parachute
  - Big Waves- Players bring the parachute high above their head and low to their knees.
  - Small waves- players move the parachute up and down at stomach level.
  - Tidal Wave- Players bring the parachute to the ground and all lift above their heads at the same time. Then, all players bring their corner of the parachute behind them and sit on the edge which creates a large tent.
  - After a few times of making Tidal Waves, the game leader can call out Shark Attack followed by 2 colors where players on those colors have to run under the parachute while inflated and find a new color.
